PARENT TEACHER INTERVIEWS IN 2024

Next year, we will not be formalising days and times for particular teachers to conduct interviews. In order to fit with people's busy schedules, teachers will take a flexible approach to interviews. Parents may request an interview with the teacher at any time and negotiate a mutually agreeable time and method of interview. This may be in person or online. There will also be many opportunities for people to come to school and engage with their children and teachers on a more informal basis.
